Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The preamble "Disposition introduced in sports balls" is unclear in defining the invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

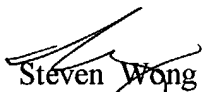

4. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Palmquist (5,518,234). Palmquist discloses an inflatable sports ball (10) comprising a plurality of depressions (20) uniformly distributed about its outer surface. Note Figure 2 showing the depressions and the protruding convex areas (16). Note Figure 2, column 3, lines 62-65 and column 4, lines 55-59 teaching a dimple diameter of 10 mm to 20 mm and a convex area distance of 0.3125 inches. The difference between these two values is not seen as being "substantial".
